

Emmanuel McBride

EmmanuelMcBride11@gmail.com | 843-356-4951

Education

University of South Carolina — Columbia, SC

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science | Expected Graduation: May 2028

Relevant Coursework

- CSCE 145: Algorithmic Design I
 - CSCE 190: Introduction to Computer Science
-

Technical Skills

- Proficient in Java through Eclipse
 - Experienced in HTML through Visual Studio
-

Experience

Cashier

IGA — Kingstree, SC

December 2022 – May 2024

- Earned recognition as the fastest cashier for a year and was invited to a scanning competition.
 - Cultivated exceptional customer service skills by engaging with diverse customers and resolving concerns promptly.
 - Developed teamwork and adaptability by cross-training in multiple departments, supporting peak-time operations, and coordinating with colleagues to meet store demands.
 - Strengthened communication and conflict resolution skills by managing high-pressure situations and providing personalized service to customers.
 - Demonstrated time management and efficiency, processing transactions quickly while maintaining accuracy and professionalism.
-

Volunteer Experience

Church Fundraisers

- Participated in organizing and executing fundraising events to support community projects and charitable initiatives.
 - Collaborated with team members to plan event logistics, increasing community participation and donations.
-

Projects

Personal Coding Projects

- Designed and tested coding solutions in a personal Java development environment to explore concepts learned in CSCE courses.
 - Created a variety of small programs to improve algorithm design and debugging skills.
-

Interests

- Gaming and coding test files during free time to enhance programming skills.
- Occasionally attends the gym to maintain physical fitness and focus.
- Passionate about researching topics of interest and sparking meaningful conversations based on findings.